

- Jo He kaha te kāpene, nē Hana?
The captain is strong, eh Hana?
- Hana Ko wai?
Who?
- Jo Ko te takawaenga o Aotearoa.
The New Zealand centre.
- Hana He kaha rāua ko te takawaenga o Ahitereiria.
Both her and the Australian centre are strong.
- Jo Āe! He kaha rāua ki te peke!
Yes! They're both strong at jumping!
- Hana He tere hoki ki te oma.
They're also fast runners.
- Hana and Jo Kia kaha, Aotearoa!
Go, New Zealand!
- Jo Auē! Kua whara ngā takawaenga.
Oh no! The centres have hurt themselves.
- Hana Āe! I tūtuki rāua.
Yes! They crashed (into each other).
- Māmā Kei te wini tātou?
Are we winning?
- Jo Āe, i tēnei wā.
Yes, at the moment.

- Pāpā Ā, kei te whakatā ngā tīma. Jo, mauria mai ngā pihikete.
Ah, the teams are having a break. Jo, bring the biscuits.
- Jo Kei hea ngā pihikete?
Where are the biscuits?
- Māmā Kei roto i te kāpata.
In the pantry (cupboard).
- Papa E hika! Ko wai te takawaenga hou?
Goodness! Who's the new centre?
- Hana Aua, engari, he kaha ia.
Don't know, but she's strong.
- Jo Ki te aha?
At what?
- Hana Ki te oma, ki te peke, me te hopu i te pōro.
Running, jumping and catching the ball.
